

Zeeshan Haider

Web Developer

Profile

Currently looking for a position as Web Developer that will allow me to gather more professional experience in this field. I have a solid grasp of technologies such as ReactJS, NodeJS, JavaScript(ES6), JSON, DOM, HTML5, CSS3, Bootstrap, SQL, CLI and Version Control Systems (GitHub). I consider myself a fast learner with good communication and strong problem-solving skills as well as being able to stay calm under pressure.
